In accordance with its General Terms and Conditions, Scalable Capital is entitled to block access to the client area of the Platform in whole or in part in the event of unauthorised and/or abusive access. Use for commercial purposes (such as commercial securities trading or commercial management of third-party assets) or other professional activities is not permitted. The special conditions offered are intended to support the medium- and long-term oriented management of private assets. A high turnover of derivatives (with acquisitions and sales partly on the same day) does not constitute use of the broker offer in accordance with these special conditions. In case of violation of the terms and conditions and/or these special conditions Scalable Capital will inform the client. In case of repeated violation, Scalable Capital reserves the right to charge Orders for Securities according to the respective List of Prices and Services, to reject further orders for the acquisition of financial instruments and/or to make use of its termination rights.
